Testing Information

On June 28, 2013, a brief orientation will be held at Chehalem Valley Middle School located at 403 W Foothills Drive, Newberg, OR 97132 for all accepted participants. You are encouraged to show up early and required to bring photo identification. Please wear comfortable athletic wear as you will also be taking a physical test.

Applicants who are certified lateral police officers are not required to take the POST test, but are still required to check in by 09:00. All other applicants are required to take the POST. Those that are taking the POST test will need to bring exactly $12 in cash. We will not be accepting previous test scores.

Following the POST test you will then participate in the standardized Oregon Physical Abilities Test (ORPAT). The ORPAT is required for all applicants.

We do not accept other ORPAT scores, no exceptions will be made.

If you have any questions, please contact me at the listed phone number.
