

Newberg Cultural District Board Meeting Minutes for March 3, 2020

Meeting commenced at 5:27pm.

Attendees: Sean Andries, Stephanie Findley, Will Worthey, Teresa Arnold, Dan Weinheimer, Brian Stewart, Patrick Johnson

I. Elected office terms are up and new officers need to be elected. Sean Andries would be amenable to being president again, Stephanie Findley amenable to being secretary. No other nominations. Motion by Will Worthey, second by Teresa Arnold, passed unanimously.

II. Discussion of the purpose of this Board. Sean Andries gave a brief history of the board as related to parking issues and neighborhood relations. Discussion about broadening the purview of the board and how it can most effectively be used. Discussion about reaching out to other entities to see if they know about the board and how we can best collaborate. Stephanie Findley motioned to meet every other month. Will Worthey second the motion. Motion passed unanimously. Meeting schedule for this year as follows: May 5 at 3:30pm, July 14 at 3:30pm, September 1 at 3:30pm, November 10 at 6:30pm as it is the annual neighborhood meeting.

III. Coming events: Tunes on Tuesday, Lavender Festival, Camellia Festival. Sean will invite the Tunes on Tuesday committee to attend the May meeting to finish any details.

IV. Will Worthey introduced the idea of an event "One City, One Book." All members favorable of the idea and will continue to discuss details at future meetings.

V. Discussion of social media for Cultural District. Will Worthey agreed to taking over the social media page. If you have any information, newsletters, etc. email to Will and he will incorporate into the webpage. Teresa will also be given access to the webpage to be able to update on neighbor info, etc. Everyone encouraged to provide Will with information to be added to the page. Will can put links on the page to existing newsletters if you give him the information.

VI. Teresa brought up the idea of allowing people to access the cultural district space for more gatherings. Scheduling goes through the Cultural Center, please direct people there to make use of the space.

Meeting adjourned at 6:22pm
