Newberg Public Library

Limit library visits; please properly wear your mask!

Correctly worn masks are required to enter Newberg Public Library. Please only send one person per family to do library business if at all possible. It is very important that we continue to keep building occupancy down if we are to stay open, so please help your library friends by following this guidance.

Antiracism Family Book Club Ongoing through November 2020

Families with youth from preschool to high school are invited to borrow one of these titles (30 copies of each available), discuss, return, and borrow another title if desired. If you have already read the book, sign up to be notified about the discussion groups in November. See the Children's Reference Desk for more information.

LinkedIn Learning Now Available

With special thanks to the Austin Family Foundation and the Library Foundation, the Newberg Public Library is excited to now offer LinkedIn Learning to our patrons in the Newberg community.

LinkedIn Learning is a website offering video courses taught by industry experts in software, creative, and business skills. The platform has everything from management techniques, photo editing, graphic design, office utilities and tips, and even full courses in coding languages. This is a great resource to achieve your personal and professional goals!

Curbside Holds Pick-Up

Place your items on hold. When you receive the hold arrival text/email, call 503-538-7323, ext. 6 to make a curbside pick-up appointment. Staff will deliver your items to your trunk. Tuesday- Saturday, 10-11 am.

Want help choosing your items or placing holds? Call 503-538-7323 or email nplibrary@newbergoregon.gov.

Now Accepting Donations by Appointment

The Newberg Library Friends can again accept donations of used books but only by appointment. To make an appointment, call or text: (503) 939-1082.
